NOON DISPATCHES.

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

RUSSSIAN REPORT OF PLEVNA AFFAIRS CONFIRMED.

Hard Fighting on Both Sides--Opinions of Military Correspondents--The Attack on Plevna to be Turned into a Siege--Speculations on the Situation--Movements of Turkish Commanders.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—All correspondents confirm the Russian official reports. Various accounts of fighting on Tuesday around Plevna concur in showing that the Turks up to five o'clock in evening repulsed continued assaults along the whole line. The Emperor had left the field, when an aide-de-camp brought the news that twelve fresh Russian battallions had carried the central salient redoubt and another redoubt and thus retrieved the day.

The Times' correspondent says the capture of the redoubts changes the whole affair, and converts a bloody repulse into a final and perhaps permanent success. In any case subsequent attacks must be by sap and trench, for last reserves were engaged on the Russian side. The valor of the Russian troops is the only thing to be praised, as the attack was unskillfully directed and the waste of life unnecessary.

The Turks were very skilfully handled. They must have lost some men in their two sallies in the open field, otherwise they were completely covered and lay close till the moment of assault.

The correspondent of the Daily News confirms the desperate fighting and says that at the close thereof the Manuelar redoubt mentioned at the commencement of his despatch was intact.

It is a significant fact that two experienced military correspondents of the Times and Daily News, after witnessing the attack on Tuesday, arrive at the same conclusion — that Plevna must be taken by gradual approaches.

The Daily News' correspondent, writing from Russian headquarters, under date of Wednesday morning, appears to have been still unaware of any decided Russian successes, for he says: The Emperor and Grand Duke Nicholas were on the field until 9 o'clock last night. The Emperor returned to headquarters here (Poredin) late last night. The battle field for the last five days is silent this morning. There is talk of submitting Turkish position to regular siege and sapping of redoubts where close blockade is instituted, with intent to starve Osman Pasha's forces. The villages enclosed within Osman Pasha's lines are full of supplies for the simple wants of the Turkish soldiers and the fields groan with heavy crops of maize.

The losses this morning are spoken of here as about five thousand to six thousand, but there are no details.

The Emperor this morning has gone back to the battle field to visit his soldiers.

Unless this position of affairs is shortly changed by a decided Russian success the event of a campaign will turn on the movements of Mehemet Ali and Suleiman Pasha rather than on the fate of Plevna, but all information concerning those is of the most meagre description.

A telegram from Shumla, dated September 11th, shows that Mehemet Ali's central column is still at Kazelevo, and that Mehemet Ali himself had gone towards Eski Juma and may be working westward to compel the Russians to abandon Tirnova and the Balkans.

At Constantinople on Thursday the war office issued a telegram from Suleiman Pasha, dated Sept. 10th; reporting that on the previous day the reconnoitering party from the village of Shipka pushed through the Balkans to the rear of the Russian position and captured the village held by a small Russian force ten miles from Gabrova.

On the other hand a special dispatch to the Daily Telegragh; dated Shipka, Sept. 12th, says all was quiet there and nothing whatever was doing. What portion of Suleiman Pasha's army remains at Shipka, I do not know, but the Turkish war-office bulletin, above mentioned, would indicate that his own headquarters were still there.

A Reuter from Constantinople, dated yesterday, says that reassuring dispatches have been received from Osman Pasha.

FROM WASHINGTON.

McCormick Resigns--Dr. Hayes Revives Morton--Movements of the Official Pilgrims.

WASHINGTON, September 14.—Gov. McCormick has undoubtedly resigned, to take effect at the earliest convenience of Secretary Sherman. The Governor will most likely to go as minister to Russia.

They have Morton better in mind and body, from having seen Hayes.

Key leaves to-morrow evening for Louisville; Shurz is undecided. Evarts also goes to Louisville chaperoned by Key.

Supposed to be Poisoned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A well dressed man, aged about 65, was found at Lake Horn, last night, unconscious. From letters on his person he was supposed to be Wm. H. Hull, of Augusta, Ga. He showed symptoms of having been poisoned.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Circular.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 14.—Cotton has been in increased demand during the past week, and with rather less offering. Prices have a hardening tendency; quotations of some descriptions have advanced. The market closes with animation. American is in active request and prices are raised generally $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ in the middle and lower grades. Sea island is in extensive demand at previous rates. Futures were in good demand throughout the week, and a considerable business was done. The improvement yesterday for the week was fully 3-16, but in the afternoon the market gave way and closed at 5-32 advance on last Thursday's rates.

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

A BATTLE BETWEEN TURKS AND RUSSIANS, THE LATTER FINALLY REPULSED.

Effects following the Taking of the Grivica Redoubt.

LONDON, September 14.—The following Turkish official dispatch was received at Shumla September 13: Baker Pasha is advancing Northwest from Gorna Soudlier. Yesterday he encountered four battallions of Russian infantry, supported by cavalry, near Karaghatch. Aided by a Circassian detachment Baker Pasha attacked the enemy, who being reinforced by five infantry battalions repulsed the Turks.

Later in the day the Turks received cavalry and infantry reinforcements and compelled the enemy to retreat to Vaditska with heavy loss.

A dispatch to the Evening Standard dated Bucharest, Friday, noon, says: Since the capture of the Grivica redoubt before Plevna there has been only a continued bombardment of the town, and other positions of the Turks. Preparations are making for another assault. There is an immense number of wounded and but few surgeons.

WASHINGTON.

Deputies to be Dismissed--Payment on Freedmen's Bank Deposits.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Commissioner Raum directs Collector Freeland to dismiss four deputies for improper assessment of manufactured tobacco.

The commissioners of the Freedmen's Bank have funds to pay a dividend of 10 per cent., and suggest an organized movement to induce Congress to authorize the purchase of certain property to enable them to pay 20 per cent.

Speculations on the Effect of M. Gambetta's Sentence.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—A Paris despatch to the Times shows how Gambetta, by taking advantage of all his technical rights, can prevent judgment against him from becoming definitive until after confirmation of his election as Deputy, which would protect him from imprisonment. The correspondent is evidently replying to the argument of the Paris Gaulois and Figaro, that the judicial decision sentencing M. Gambetta to three months imprisonment for an outrage, deprives him of civil rights for 5 years. He continues:

"I am perfectly aware that the arrest en appel becomes definitive when it is delivered, if the Court of Cassation does not quash the judgment that inviolability can have no retrospective effect. I also know that as soon as it has been delivered M. Gambetta may be imprisoned till the decision of the Court of Cassation, but it will not do any one, not even those who are most guilty of this act of ministerial insanity, the injury of believing that they would make use of their power in that respect."

Comparative Cotton Statement

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The comparative cotton statement for the week ending Friday Sept. 14th, shows: Net receipts at all United States ports during the week 13,113; net receipts at all United States ports for same week last year 40,323; total receipts to this date 18,846; total receipts to same date last year 53,586. Exports for the week 5,773; exports for same week last year 13,038; total exports to this date 12,005; total exports to same date last year 21,399. Stock at all United States ports 107,955; stock at all United States ports same time last year 127,329; stock at all interior towns 9,387; stock at all interior towns same date last year 11,155; stock at Liverpool 740,000; stock at Liverpool same time last year 751,000; stock of American afloat for Great Britain 13,000; stock of American afloat for Great Britain same time last year 24,000.

Closing of Banker's Convention

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The banker's convention resumed its session this morning, but was poorly attended; many having left for their homes last night. The convention will come to a close this afternoon. The resolution pledging the banking interests to aid the government in its efforts to restore a specie basis, was referred to the executive council as was also another giving it as an opinion of the convention that it was advisable for the Federal Government to exercise surveillance over the savings banks and loan and trust companies.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—For the South Atlantic States south and east winds; stationary temperature, falling barometer, partly cloudy weather with local rains will prevail.

Another "Irregularity."

BURLINGTON, IOWA, Sept. 14.—Mayor Parsons has decamped. There is a heavy defect in the school fund. The Merchant's National Bank loses $50,000 and there are other victims.

Killed by a Train.

COLUMBUS, September 14.—At Opelika, Alabama, yesterday morning Ernest Doughty aged thirteen years, was run over by a railway train and his head and body separated by the wheels.

A Card From Marshal Douglas.

[From the Charlotte Observer.]

OFFICE OF U. S. MARSHAL,
WESTERN DISTRICT,
Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 3, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—I desire to call your attention to the fact that the charges contained in the communication signed "Veritas," and your editorial thereon, in your issue of the 1st instant, have already been answered by me. In February, 1875, I demanded a congressional enquiry, and completely vindicated my personal and official character by the testimony of the witnesses summoned at the instance of my accusers. My own witnesses were not examined.

When charges were recently preferred, I again insisted upon the fullest investigation. In both instance an official decision was rendered in my favor. I shall ever be ready to answer all charges or explain any official transaction on my part when called on by the proper authority. In the meantime, would it not be simple justice to a public officer, the efficient performance of whose arduous and necessarily unpopular duties depend to a great extent upon the suppost accorded him by the press and good citizens of his district, at least to state that these charges have already been presented to the proper authorities, and answered to their satisfaction? This re-iteration of false and refuted charges can have no other effect than to embarass me and my deputies in the discharge of our duties, and increase the feeling that unfortunately already exists in certain localities against the enforcement of the internal revenue laws.

Trusting that your sense of fairness will give this a place in your columns, I remain, very respectfull,

RO. M. DOUGLAS,
U. S. Marshal.

Court in Louisburg---Second Grand Concert of Louisburg Cornet Band, under Direction of Prof. W. H. Neave.

[Special Correspondence of the News.]

LOUISBURG, N. C., Sept. 12, 1877.

Court week in town and a large crowd in attendance, Hon. A. M. McKoy Judge presiding; Col. L. C. Edwards, W. N. Lanier, J. B. Batchelor, F. M. Busbee, A. M. Lewis, John Gatling, Walter A. Montgomery, C. N. Cook, T. B. Venable, M. Hawkins, A. S. Peace, N. B. Cannady, D. C. Winston, Henry T. Jordan and Col. Wortham, representing the Bar from a distance. Our resident lawyers found at their post of duty are Hon. J. J. Davis, C. M. Cooke, W. F. Green, T. T. Mitchell, B. W. Watts, B. F. Bulleck, E. W. Timberlake and B. B. Massenburg. Mr. W. H. Spencer being confined to his bed by an attack of sickness, has not been able to attend court any day.

The second grand concert of the Louisburg Cornet Band, under the direction of Prof. W. H. Neave, took place last evening at Hawkins' Hall. Prof. Slater, with his violin solos, added much to the variety of the evening. The citizens of our town may be excused for indulging in laudable pride as regards the Louisburg Cornet Band. Composed of such fine material, with Mr. R. S. White as its leader, it may be considered a permanent institution—one of the most pleasing characteristics of the place. The members of the band esteem themselves fortunate in having secured for this term of instruction Prof. Neave, whose thorough acquaintance with the divine art of scientific harmony places him in the first ranks of music, and has secured for him a national reputation. The thanks of all are due Mr. J. S. Barrow and Miss Florence Davis for their assistance and fine rendition of their respective pieces. Other ladies also took a part in the concert.

As last evening was so inclement and many were kept away from the concert, a request was made by the audience for a repetition. The consent of the performers being obtained, Mr. C. M. Cooke made announcement of said fact from the rostrum. So that this (Wednesday) evening our citizens are anticipating another musical treat.

I would like to touch on other matters of interest in the community, but a stress of engagements closes this hurried communication from your quandom correspondent. C. M. W.

Love in a Grave-Yard.

[Saratoga Letter.]

Right near the grave of Chancellor Walworth sat two of the loveliest lovers in Saratoga—young, sentimentals and gushing. They have been engaged the last two weeks. Passing behind the monument with Mr. Palmerston, the venerable old sexton, I heard the following conversation from these melting lovers, almost too full for utterance.

I give it literally:

"Angel pet!".

"What, Charley?"

"What awful poetry on the gravestone, lovely!"

"What, sweetie?"

"I said what dreadful verses on the gravestones, darling!"

"Oh, did you—my own?"

"Yes, duckey, listen!—

"Here lies the wife of Robert Recular;
He walked the ways of God perpendicular."

"Oh, my!"

Then came a long pause. He was holding her hand in one of his, while the other whipped his pantaloons leg with a cane. Then the pause was interrupted by:

"Oh, sweetie!"

"What, Charley?"

"Such queer grave-stones!"

"Such queer what, darling?"

"I said what strange poetry on the gravestones."

"Oh, did you, pet?"

"Yes, angel, look at that one:

40 years a maiden,
1 year a wife;
2 months a mother,
And that took her life."

"Oh, Charley!"

That is just what these loving lovers aid.

THE FALL OF RICHMOND.

How Mr. Davis and His Cabinet Received the News of the Disaster.

(Hon. John H. Reagan in the Philadelphia Weekly Times.)

The statement has been made by General Wilson, as it has been made in many other newspaper articles, that "On the first Sunday in April, 1865, while seated in St. Paul's Church, in Richmond, Jefferson Davis received a telegram from Lee announcing the fall of Petersburg, the partial destruction of the army, and the immediate necessity of flight." On that point I make this statement: On the Sunday referred to I went by the War Department on my way to church. When at the Department I was informed of two dispatches just received from General Lee, stating briefly the circumstances which made it necessary for him to withdraw his army from its position in front of Richmond and Petersburg, at 2 o'clock that evening, and that it would be necessary for the government archives and public property to be removed at once. On receiving this intelligence, not knowing that Mr. Davis had already received it, I walked toward his residence, which was a few hundred yards off, to confer with him about it and on the way met him and Gov Lubbock, of his staff. We three men walked on to the Executive office. He then assembled his Cabinet and sent for the Governor of Virginia and the Mayor of Richmond. Directions were then given to prepare the public archives for removal, and measures were considered and directions given to secure, as far as practicable, good order and safety to persons and property in the city until it should be surrendered. In this paper it is also said that "Although he (Mr. Davis) could not have been unprepared for this intelligence, it appears that he did not receive it with self-possession or dignity, but with tremulous and nervous haste; like a weak man in the hour of misfortune, he left the house of worship and hurried home, where he and his more resolute wife spent the rest of the day in packing their personal baggage." And it is added that, "Those who are acquainted with the personal character of Mrs. Davis can readily imagine with what energy and determination she must have prepared her family for flight," etc. And that "They may believe, too, that although heartsick and disgusted, there was nothing irresolute or vacillating in her actions."

I would express my surprise, if I could be surprised now by anything of this kind, that such a statement should come from any respectable source. Now the truth is, Mr. Davis did not "with tremulous haste, hurry home to his more resolute wife." From where I met him he went directly to the Executive office, where he remained nearly all day and, if I remember right, a part of the night, looking and giving directions in relation to public affairs and seeming to take no notice of his private matters. He did not go to where his wife was or act with her in preparing for flight, for neither she or their children were in Richmond, had been for three or four weeks before that time. And I am sure there is no man who saw Mr. Davis on that trying occasion, but was impressed with his calm and manly dignity, his devotion to the public interest, and his courage. It is apparent that one object of this statement is to try to produce the impression that Mr. Davis, in the hour of extreme peril, had forgotten his great office and trust, descended to the care of his personal baggage, while the Confederate Government was dissolving; and that another of its objects was to show that, on this great occasion, he was irresolute, tremulous, nervous, and wanting in self-possession and dignity. Nothing could be further from the truth; and I venture the statement that there is no one who saw him then, or who knew his character, who would not unhesitatingly contradict such a statement, and I venture the further suggestion that neither of these charges will be sustained, nor will any attempt ever be made to sustain them by any legitimate or trustworthy evidence; and that no man will make such charges who has respect for truth, and a just regard for his own reputation.

A Thrilling Suicide.

[Richmond Enquirer.]

The recent suicide of Dr. L. M. Stein of this city, at Niagara Falls, has been inadequately described in the dispatches. He hired a hack and was driven to the new suspension bridge, where he discharged the coachman. He then asked a little bootblack to cross the bridge with him. When they were approaching the Canadian bank he drew out a large roll of bills from his pocket, handed the boy a dollar for his services, and saying that he desired to enjoy the deep water, started back for the centre of the bridge. Reaching this point he stopped, threw down his shawl and hand bag, seized the boy, saying, "You have got to come, too," and attempted to scale the railing of the bridge and jump with the little fellow in the river below. The boy seized hold of a cable and screamed wildly for assistance. The demented doctor managed to climb over the railing, but the boy succeeded in tearing himself loose and started for assistance. The boy says that the doctor stooped, and, taking hold of the staycable of the bridge, attempted some gymnastic performances, but, as he was old and infirm he hung by his hands for a second and then dropped 190 feet below. The suicide struck the surface of the river feet first, disappeared for a second, rose to the surface, and was seen floating for a long distance down the river before finally disappearing from sight.

Juan K. Dudli.

[Boston Herald.]

It is with feelings of pride than an American should read of the gorgeous metamorphoses which our young people who go abroad to study music undergo. To see a plain Miss Rice, after six months in Italy, change her cereal surname for that of Mlle. Ricci, and thus show foreign snobs what an American girl can do, is supremely satisfying to our national pride. Blanche Tucker, who need not have been ashamed of her name, for she is of no kin to that namesake who sang for his supper, now appears in her home paper as Blanche Rosanella, while Mary Trimble, daughter of our late consul at Milan, is utterly glorious in the name of Beatrice Amore. Go abroad, dear old Yankee Doodle, and change your plebeian name for that resplendent one of Juan K Dudli. Now that we have shown how it is done, look out for an exodus of all the Smith, Brown and Jones girls.

STATE NEWS.

Marshal Douglas has appointed John B. Gretter and Mr. Trogden as clerks in his office.

The magistrates of Lenoir county, after two consultations, have refused to establish Inferior Courts.

Caldwell county jail has only four prisoners, all incarcerated on charges of larceny, on which they will be tried next week.

On Granville Circuit, Methodist Protestant Church, there have been recently fifty-two conversions and forty accessions to that church.

Murfreesboro Enquirer: Mr. William A. Outland was instantly killed at Woodland, Northampton county, on Saturday last, by the lever of a log cart, which flew over and struck him on the head.

Murfreesboro Enquirer: Our enterprising countyman, H. C. Maddrey, Esq., has recently stocked his farm at Mt. Gallant, with cattle, sheep, &c., and is establishing a stock farm in Hertford county. This is a good move, and we trust his example will be imitated by others. Our people should raise more stock and less cotton.

Washington Press: A thief entered few nights ago, and was pursued by Mr. Colbert to the back end of his garden, when he turned upon Mr. C. and knocked him down, but left him without further injury. Be careful how you chase a thief unless you are prepared for him. There is no telling what they may do.

The New North State: The following is the quantity of fruit shipped from the Greensboro section up to date:

From Greensboro—3,501 crates of peaches, 57 crates of pears, 35 crates of grapes, 161 crates of damsons and cherries, 1 crate of quinces.

From Friendship—1,080 crates of peaches.

From New Garden—148 crates of peaches, 24 crates of damsons and cherries.

From Salem and Winston—1,757 crates of peaches, 92 crates of grapes, 10 crates of damsons and cherries.

From Kernersville—123 crates of peaches, 30 crates of damsons and cherries.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

C. B. Bestor is the new Mayor of Mobile.

Recent rain has ended the long drouth in Western Texas.

The Democrats of Baltimore have nominated Col. P. M. Snowden for Sheriff.

The Texas school per capita this year will be $4.50 for each pupil against $2.82 last year.

The Dallas Commercial estimates the wheat crop of Texas this year at 7,500,000 bushels.

In several counties of Alabama the Democrats have brought out colored men for the Legislature.

Bill Langley, the celebrated Texas murderer, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hanged.

Gov. Hubbard and Hon. John H. Reagan are mentioned as probable candidates for the next Governor of Texas.

The Virginia State Treasury is reported to be entirely empty. On Wednesday there was not a dollar in its coffers.

Gen. B. F. Cheatham, a distinguished Confederate officer, will command the procession to be given in honor of President Hayes's visit to Nashville, Tenn.

When a horse runs off with a couple of Texas lovers, instead of spasmodically seizing the reins, she throws her arms around his neck, and he tries to stop the horse by plying the whip.

A charter has been granted to Gen. Fitz Lee and others to form a joint stock company for the purchase of the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs property and for converting the same into a summer resort and sanitarium.

The Adjutant-General reports that there are now organized in the State of Texas thirty-one militia companies, Major Jones' battalion, consisting of five companies, and Lieutenant Halls' command.

Baltimore Sun: A considerable fortune, it is said, in England awaits the heirs of Corydon Carpenter, William Fauntleroy Carpenter, Nathaniel Carpenter and Bushrod Carpenter, who were sons of Dr. Nathaniel Carpenter, of King and Queen county. They are believed to be scattered over Virginia and North Carolina.

A grand fruit and floral exhibition is now going on in Baltimore, at the Fifth Regiment armory, under the auspices of the American Pomological Society. North Carolina is not represented, according to the account in the Baltimore Sun, 12th inst.

A Coroner in St. Mary's Parish, Louisiana, refused to hold an inquest over a murdered man because he was afraid that he should not get his pay. Boston had a Coroner, in those primitive times when Coroners had not been supplanted by medical examiners, who always made sure of his fees in advance.

A steady stream of cold water is being thrown on the Kansas colonization scheme in Baltimore. Rev. J. P. Fugett, an Episcopal clergyman, who ministered several years in Kansas, says: "The workingman who emigrates to Kansas should have means to return with at no distant day, otherwise I pity him."

Richmond correspondence Baltimore Sun: Lomax B. Smith, a highly respected colored barber, who died here Saturday, was buried this afternoon at 4 o'clock with military honors, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, commanded by the son of the late Gov. H. A. Wise, acting as a military escort. This was the first instance on record here where the remains of a colored man were escorted to their last resting-place by white military. The deceased was a member of the Blues' brass band for a quarter of a century.

THE FARMERS AND THE FAIR

The approaching State Fair will be distinguished by a feature possessed by no other exhibition of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The farmers of the State will be present in force. The Society has thrown wide its gates to the agricultural community, and from all quarters the representatives of this great, preponderating element of our population are coming. At last agriculture is the grand, leading subject of the Fair. This fact is realized in all the length and breadth of the land, and its immediate and most gratifying result is the awakening of a new and widespread interest in this peculiarly North Carolina institution. It can no longer be said of the Fair, even by its worst enemies or most severe critics, that it is a jockey club, a gambler's paradise, or a sham and mockery. On the contrary it is generally conceded now that the North Carolina Agricultural Society is fulfilling its mission, reaching up to the full standard of excellence and usefulness originally designed for it. In the language of that distinguished and most estimable gentleman, Sydenham B. Alexander, Master of the State Grange, this Society has become "a co-laborer with the farmers in the great work of promoting the Agricultural interests of the State."

To this dignity, this high ground of public usefulness, has the society at length arrived; and it merits the cordial, active, earnest co-operation of our farming community in all parts of the commonwealth. We are therefore glad to see the Master of the State Grange calling upon the Patrons of Husbandry [illegible] cognition and appreciation of the work and efforts and purposes of the Fair by attending its annual exhibitions. Should this well-timed, appropriate call meet with the response which it deserves and which is hoped for it, "Grange Day," Thursday, the 18th of October, will be one of the most notable days of the year, marking a great step forward on the line of agricultural progress. To advance the farmers' interests rapidly it is very important that other classes of our population, such as are represented in the North Carolina Agricultural Society, be enlisted in the cause. It is in the union of effort and of interest that we look for the material growth of States and communities. To improve and develop this country as it should be and as all desire, we need something more than the labor of the farmer. We need the cash of the capitalist, the enterprise of the merchant, the energy of the railroad man, the skill of the mechanic and manufacturer, the experience of the miner, the muscle of the laborer, the brains of the learned men of all professions, and the pen of the journalist. All conflicts of interest and all dissensions retard progress. The trades and professions are naturally harmonious, and whatever tends to promote unity of design or endeavor, will receive the approbation and support of all thinking men.

The farmers will promote the laudable objects of the N. C. Agricultural Society, help the State on in her slow but steady march up the inclined plane of prosperity, and benefit themselves in many ways, by subscribing to the sentiments promulgated by Capt. Alexander in his call for a Grange Day. They cannot but find the proposed reunion both "pleasant and profitable," as expressed in the address of the Master of the State Grange. Let them come from every section of North Carolina, bringing with them specimens of all their products, and the best of their stock; and let the world see for once a full representation of the agricultural wealth of the State. An exhibition of this kind is especially advantageous at the present as so much attention is being directed to our borders in connection with immigration.

THE GEORGIA SENATORSHIP.

The next Legislature of Georgia will elect a United States Senator to the seat now filled with so much credit to the country by General Gordon. The canvass has already begun, and is daily waxing warmer and warmer. A number of ambitious politicians are coming forward as candidates for the position.

Most prominent among the names mentioned in connection with the place is that of John B. Gordon. He should be elected. No one in the Empire State is more worthy the honor, and none more deserving. No Georgian has the popularity outside the limits of his State enjoyed by General Gordon, and we are disposed to think that he is the favorite within her borders. His defeat would be received with regret throughout the country. The Charleston News well remarks:

We hazard nothing in saying that it would be a mortification, not only to the South at large, but also to the intelligent people of the whole Union, to see the gallant Gordon succeeded by either Toombs or Brown.

This is no doubt a fair expression of the sentiment in South Carolina. Turning to Virginia we find similar expressions in Gordon's favor. The Norfolk Landmark, one of the truest exponents of Virginia opinion and feeling, thinks this gallant Georgia soldier and statesman should be re-elected to the Senate, "not because he was a faithful soldier and a brave man, but because he has shown himself to be a wise and able lawmaker—a true and faithful servant of the public. He has had the pluck to stand up for peace and the measures of peace when men who were conspiring for his seat pursued the opposite line, and sought to kindle a prairie fire before him; and now that his wisdom stands vindicated before the country, it would be a source of genuine pain to see him stricken down in his career of public usefulness and honor."

We trust there is no danger of his defeat; and that the Landmark is not a false prophet when it says, "The man is not named who can beat Gordon in the State of Georgia."

HON. GEO. V. STRONG—AN EXPLANATION ASKED.

We were pleased when this gentleman was elected Judge of the Criminal Court of Wake County, and have no cause to be dissatisfied with his administration. As a public journal it is our duty to call upon him for an explanation on the following state of facts: Judge Strong was elected Judge on the 12th of March, 1877. The bill establishing the Court forbade the Judge of it from practicing law. In view of that enactment Judge Strong did not accept the position and qualify as Judge until Saturday, May 12th, his first Court being held the following Monday. During this time he was in full practice of his profession. Lately he drew his pay, and drew back to March 12th, thus getting $330 of money of the tax-payers for which he rendered no service and two months pay as Judge when he was not Judge. We have no comment to make. It is our duty to ask for the explanation, and we hope Judge Strong can make a satisfactory one. As it stands the Radicals are clapping their hands and making ready to use the facts in the next campaign. The transaction is no secret and we ask Judge Strong at once to make a satisfactory explanation or refund the money. We make this demand in the interest of Judge Strong as well as of the party and the public.

[illegible] Protestant Episcopal Convention decides not to divide the Diocese, as appears in the interesting report of the proceedings of yesterday published elsewhere in our columns. The question was a difficult one, full of perplexities, and hedged in with embarrassments of various kinds. There was a wide difference of opinion, both as to the wisdom of making the division and the proper line of division. These differences seemed utterly irreconcileable. It was apparent, after the second day's discussions, that that unanimity of feeling on the subject so essential to the success of the movement, could not be obtained. Hence, the wisest conclusion that could be reached was to let the Diocese stand as it is, for the present at least.

Singing the Russian Evening Hymn.

A correspondent of the London News, who accompanied the Fourteenth Corps in its march through the Dobrudja, sketches an early evening scene near Trajan's Wall. Along the road, perhaps half a mile away, were some Turkish horsemen on the slope of the next hill, and beyond this rise was a long unbroken ridge, with the Turkish camp extended along the summit, in an irregular black line, with here and there white tents. The Russian army was drawn up in the foreground for the evening hymn, which is always sung at sundown. The soldiers stood there in parade, with their white caps under their arms, singing in chorus the sweet vesper hymn, with an interlude from the bands and bugles. The long lines of men without their accoutrements standing in reverential silence while the bands played with a strain, and then joining in the chorus with solemn earnestness—the twilight hour, the presence of the enemy, the grand lines of the encircling hills—all made it a scene to be remembered. After the hymn, orders were read that the dark uniforms were to be put on and that they were to be ready to advance at daybreak, and that if any firing was heard in the night they were to lie still and await the sound of the bugle call. Every soldier in the camp knew that a battle was expected, and in an hour the whole camp was asleep.

Justice Overtaking Effigy Sargent.

[From the Pittsburgh Post.]

"Justice travels with a leaden heel, but strikes with an iron hand. Wait till the flood gate is lifted, and a full head of water comes rushing on. Wait and you will see a fine grinding then."

So spoke Judge Black in his memorable closing speech to the Electoral Commission. The grinding has commenced. California has just ground out, exceeding fine, "Effigy" Sargent, one of the conspirators that stole the Presidency. He is buried under an avalanche of 38 majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. A Democrat will take his place in the United States Senate. One by one they have got to go.

DRUGS.

DR TUTT'S PILLS

Meet the wants of those who need a safe and reliable medicine. The immense demand which has so rapidly followed their introduction is evidence that they do supply this want, and proves them to be ever furnished the American people. The highest medical authorities concede their superiority over all others, because they possess alterative, tonic, and healing properties contained in no other medicine. Being strongly Anti-Bilious, they expel all humors, correct a vitiated state of the system, and, being purely vegetable, they do not, like other pills, leave the stomach and bowels in a worse condition than they found them, but, on the contrary, impart a healthy tone and vigor before unknown.

THE MOST POPULAR PILL

OUR WORDS INDORSED

Dr. C. L. MITCHELL, Ft. Meade, Fla., says: . . . "I know the superiority of your pills, and want to see them used instead of the worthless compounds sold in this country." . . .

Rev. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky., says: "Tutt's pills are worth their weight in gold." . . .

Had Sick Headache & Piles 30 Years. . . . "I am well. Gaining strength and flesh every day." . . . R. S. Austin, Springfield, Mass.

He Defies Chills and Fever. . . . "With Tutt's pills, we defy chills. Illinois owes you a debt of gratitude." . . . F. R. Ripley, Chicago, Ill.

Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents. Office, 35 Murray Street, New York.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE

Gray hair is changed to a glossy black by a single application of this dye. It is easily applied, acts like magic, and is as harmless as spring water. Never disappoints. Sold by druggists. Price $1.00. Office, 35 Murray Street, New York.

Plevna contains about 17,000 people, 2 churches, 19 mosques, 9 minarets; 1,427 houses are inhabited by Christians and 1,927 by Mussulmans.

Mr. W. H. Herndon, once the law-partner of Abraham Lincoln, attempted to commit suicide at Springfield, Ill., last Saturday, by taking laudanum. He is very ill in consequence.

The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer says that the South has it in its power to drive all other cotton mills from the markets of the world, by only taking advantage of its opportunities.

An English beauty who went to be photographed at a seaside resort, after taking her seat in the chair of torture was thus addressed by the insinuating operator: "Now, miss, you look at me as if I was your young man and you'd met me unexpected."

New York Herald: A European writer says that American men are naturally moody and downcast. We have noticed this ourselves. An American with a black-haired wife is always looking down at the lapel of his coat to discover whether or not he has any long yellow hairs there in the opera bouffe season.

New York Sun: A Democratic majority of forty in the Legislature of California is the first fruits of the election of 1877. It is ominous of good. Thanks are also due to Messrs. Hayes, Schurz, and Key for not having taken their circus to California before this election. If they had been there, the anti-fraud majority would have become inconveniently large.

In a suit in Poughkeepsie for damages for the bite of a dog, the father of the sufferer testified that after the boy was bitten he took a pair of scissors and cut off some of the dog's hair with which to cure the bite. Apparently the jury thought this did not do much good, as they brought in a verdict of $35 and costs in his favor.

Ex-Councilman Logan, of Philadelphia, delivered a lecture in that city on Monday evening, on the "Charley Ross Mystery." He said he believed the Maryland boy who was raked up last march was the true Charley Ross He had been active in the search for the lost child and had seen a number of stray little ones, but the child in Maryland answered the description exactly, according to his ideas.

Col. Valentine Baker, of Her Majesty's service, now Baker Pasha, of the Turkish army, has had a training wonderfully complete and varied. He served in the Cape war for two years, the Crimean war one and a half year, the Italian revolutionary war, the Austro-Prussian war, the Franco-German war, and the French revolutionary siege of Paris. He has seen four years' Indian service, and was for fourteen years in command of the Tenth Hussars.

The Canossa monument, which was unveiled on August 26, at Bismarckstein, at the highest peak of the Burgberg, near the village of Harzburg, is a granite obelisk, nearly fifty feet high, showing a bronze medallion of Prince Bismarck on the front, and, on the opposite side, the famous words: "Nach Canosso gehen wir nicht." The Burgberg is the site of a castle which belonged to the German Emperor who did go to Canossa. The director of the Harzburg mines and Dr. Flotno, of Jena, delivered addresses, when this defiant column was dedicated in the name of civil and religious liberty.

The Ottoman Hordes.

[Constantinople Letter in Philadelphia Press]

The last division of the reserves has been called into service. This is composed of men of fifty or more years of age, and will number about 150,000, most of them being drawn from Asia. After this comes the rising en masse or the call to arms of the able-bodied population. The European reserves are to be stationed at Adrianople, Sophia and Salonica. When the unclassified masses are summoned to the field the Standard of the Prophet will be unfurled and the Sultan will take the supreme command. That will be a critical moment, for it will be an appeal to religious fanaticism and to a destructive war between Mohammedans and infidels. It will be the signal of the massacre and extermination of the Christian Ottoman subjects. This may not be intended, but it will be so understood. The Porte cannot restrain the unbridled fury of the bigoted followers of Mahomet when it calls upon them in the usual form to fight for the religion he founded, and to crush its enemies. It was the intention of the government to enlist Christians for the exterior defense of Constantinople, and negotiations were entered into with the heads of the different Christian communities for that purpose. On their advice the project was abandoned, and, instead it was determined to form a new organization for the protection of the capital itself, a civic guard, of which the Sultan was to be the commander. It is to be called the "Imperial Guard," and will be composed of men between twenty and thirty years of age. The decree does not mention whether Christians will form a part of it or not. They certainly are not reliable champions of Mohammedan rule, even the most servile and debased of them.

A Blind Family of Musicians.

(Petersburg Index-Appeal, 13th.)

The train from Weldon yesterday brought to this city among its passengers, a family from North Carolina, whose condition excited the sympathy of all who saw them. They seemed to be all members of one family, consisting of males and females, and each of them carried a musical instrument of some kind. The most remarkable and unfortunate thing about them is that they are all blind or nearly so, and have to be helped on and off the cars. Their appearance evidently betokened poverty, and his unfortunate and pitiable condition aroused sympathy. We could not ascertain to what point they were bound.

It is the most perfect and economical in use. The Boiler is of new design, being vertical, yet all the heating surface is entirely covered with water, thus preventing the fire from destroying the tubes as is the case, in a few years, in all upright tubular boilers in which the fire passes through the tubes above the water line, soon destroying the exposed end of the tubes causing them to leak.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Col. D. M. Carter, President of the Penitentiary Board, drew from the State Treasury $10,000 yesterday for the support of convicts &c.

——An adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen was to have been held last night. There being present only his Honor, the Mayor, and four aldermen, they adjourned to meet again next Monday night at 8 o'clock.

——Mecklenburg county sends to the Department of Agriculture, some of the best specimens of oats, millet, rye and other cereals we have seen for many a day. They will be placed in the niche appropriated to that county in the Agricultural Museum.

——We are requested to state that there are some bundles of hats and shoes left at the office of the National Hotel, the owners of which are not known. It is supposed they were left there as contributions to the Orphan Asylum, but as this is not certain Mr. Mills declined to take them. Any one knowing anything about the bundles will please leave the information at the office of the National.

——It is with pleasure we refer our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. G. W. Wynne, & Co. This livery establishment is one of the largest and best in the South. Mr. Wynne having been in the business for many years, knows well, how to cater to the interest of his patrons, and is at all times on the "qui vive" to supply his many friends with nobby turnouts. Their fine omnibuses are always on hand to carry passengers to and from the depot.

Returned.

The Charlotte Observer of the 13th says: Col. A. D. Jenkins arrived in this city last evening from New York, accompanied by his wife, nee Miss Claudia Pritchard, daughter of Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of Raleigh, and took rooms at the Central Hotel. They arrived in New York from a tour of Europe about two weeks ago, and will remain in Charlotte about two weeks, after which they will visit Raleigh and then return here, where they will probably reside. We are glad to be able to report both Col. Jenkins and wife in excellent health.

The Farmer and Mechanic--A New Agricultural Paper.

Arrangements have been made by the Department of Agriculture for the publication of a weekly eight-page agricultural journal, to be known as the Farmer and Mechanic. The Farmer and Mechanic will be the official organ of the Department, and will have the first publication of all matters the Department intended for publication in the press. Commissioner Polk's circular, announcing the arrangement, will appear in the NEWS to-morrow.

Mrs. Elliott's Housewife.

A new edition of this excellent domestic book has just been issued from the publishing house of Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, Philadelphia. A copy ought to be in the hands of every housewife in the country, as it contains directions for preparing every kind of dish of fish, flesh, fowl or vegetable, and recipes on various subjects useful in the family. Booksellers throughout the country would do well to order and keep a supply on hand.

The Opening at Peace Institute.

We are happy to announce that Peace Institute has opened under auspicious circumstances. Thursday was the opening day, and from the number present at roll call we infer that the Messrs. Burwell will be favored this session with the largest scholarship they have ever had. With Professor Baumann to preside over the music, and such an able corps of excellent teachers as they always have at this Institute, we could not do otherwise than predict a large patronage and successful school.

Right Sort of Correspondent.

Geo. B. Walker, of Robbinsville, Graham county, N. C., a correspondent of the State Agricultural Department, writes Col. Polk that he will send him specimens of different kinds showing the industrial features of his county, although his nearest railroad depot is sixty miles off and the road to it rough and mountainous. That is the sort of friends and correspondents the department needs.

Philharmonic and Polyhymnic.

From the tooting that nightly greets the attentive ear in the neighborhood of the Market and Exchange Place, one is led to the conclusion that there are thereabouts lovers of music still lingering, and that they love it in variety. Some of the executions are different from anything we ever heard in the music line before.

Died.

Mary Amelia, infant daughter of A. H. and Annie E. Temple, died at the residence of its maternal grandfather, Mr. W. A. Myatt, Sen., in this county, on Wednesday 12th inst., aged 1 year and 17 days.

"Happy infant, early blest;
Rest, in peaceful slumbers, rest."

Public Lecture.

Hon. Josiah Turner will lecture at Metropolitan Hall on Thursday night the 20th inst. at 8 o'clock upon hard times, the late strike and the Southern Underwriters' Association.

Southern Underwriters Association.

Judge McKoy failed to send the record with his opinion up last evening. We shall publish as soon as received.

Colored Normal School.

The colored normal school at Fayetteville is progressing well. Forty-eight students are in attendance.

Broken.

The heavy rain Thursday raised Walnut creek, breaking the dam at Gattis & Jones' mill, near the mill house, doing considerable damage.

Donations to the N. C. Agricultural Society, for the Next State Fair. Oct. 16th to 20th.

(Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Supt. for Ex. Committee)

One Stow's tinners' machine, (encased) $75, given by Messrs. Peck, Stow & Wilcox, 43 Chambers street, New York, for the best display of hand-made tin ware made in North Carolina, to compete for this premium. We have here one of the most valuable donations yet made to the Society, and for a most worthy object—the encouragement of the making of our tin ware within the State, by our own skilled workmen. This firm have long been dealing with the Southern trade at large, and also the trade of our city. We hope there may be a general and spirited competition for this valuable premium.

One pair Cashmere goats, one half blood, $25, given by Wm. H. Burroughs, Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Burroughs is a farmer of liberal views, and a most generous and intelligent supporter of the Fair.

Six cedar tubs, one five gallon churn and one pair cans with tops, for ice water, $18, given by John Ott, Esq., Treasurer of the Richmond Cedar Works, Richmond, Va., for the largest number of meritorious articles exhibited in the household department by any one lady in North Carolina, (including pickles, preserves, breads, cakes, &c.) Mr. Ott has given a similar premium to the Virginia Agricultural Society. He is one of the warmest friends we possess in that State, and withal one of the best informed men in the Union in regard to agricultural topics. He has repeatedly written in our behalf in the columns of the Virginia press. We expect to give him a cordial welcome at the Fair.

Large donation in part of a superb $700 piano, manufactured by D. F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey; particulars in another article.

One Stonewall plow, given by Messrs. S. R. White & Bro., Norfolk, Va., successors to S. March & Co., dealers in agricultural implements.

Fire.

The fire noticed in yesterday morning's NEWS, as occurring at 1 o'clock A. M., was the burning of the dwelling house and cow stall belonging to Mrs. ——Ryan, located near Mr. Ed. Fasnach's place, some two or three miles east of the city. The house with all the furniture and a small amount of money which the old lady had scraped together, and even the wearing apparel of the family, were consumed, Mrs. Ryan and her daughter and two sons barely escaping with their lives. The burning of the cow stall, which was located near the house, so injured the milch cow, the almost only source of subsistence for the family, that it became necessary to kill her to end her misery.

This is a case calling for the active and immediate benevolence of those who have the means of helping the distressed. Everything this poor family had is lost, they not even saving a garment except their night clothes. A gentleman will wait on citizens to-day to receive such contributions as may be given in money, clothing, provisions or furniture for the family; and contributions may be left at Mr. Ed. Fasnach's Jewelry store. "The poor ye have always with you."

Homicide.

Andrew Mooneyhan was committed to Wake county jail yesterday morning on a mittimus issued by H. A. Rhodes, Esq., of Mark's Creek township, charged with the killing of Harry Seawell, son of Richard Seawell, Esq., of this county.

The testimony at the preliminary examination was short. Only two witnesses were examined, it seems, both giving substantially the same facts, from which it would seem that there was some misunderstanding or bad feeling between the parties prior to the meeting which terminated so fatally to young Seawell. The leading feature in the testimony was, that Seawell came up to Mooneyhan, who lived on the plantation of Mr. Joe Blake, about 9, A. M. Thursday, and said to him, "you have been lying about me," whereupon Mooneyhan caught up an axe and struck him two blows, one on the head and one on the breast, inflicting wounds of which Seawell died at 6 P. M. Mooneyhan, as stated, was committed to jail yesterday morning without bail.

Coroner Hampson went out to hold an inquest on the dead body, but had not returned late yesterday evening. It is not probable that an inquest will throw any additional light on the facts as elicited before the Magistrate.

Another Fire.

Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning the barn on the premises of Mr. John B. Suggs, one mile from the city on the Tarboro road, was discovered to be on fire, and before any assistance could be rendered, the building, with all Mr. Sugg's forage, farming tools and harness were consumed, burning a very valuable horse and one extra fine mule that were stabled in the barn. It was evidently the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire or light about the barn, and it contained no substance likely to produce spontaneous combustion. Mr. Suggs loses about $2,000 on which there was no insurance.

Mr Suggs' store, which is adjoining his dwelling, was broken into and robbed of about $500 in cash, besides other property, about sixteen months ago; and a very plausible theory of the fire yesterday morning is that, as Mr. Suggs is generally understood to have money in his house, some rogue fired the barn thinking the family, on discovering the fire, would rush out to it, and thus afford another opportunity for robbing the store or dwelling, but the fire was discovered by neighbors before it it was by the family, and thus frustrated the design.

Another Return.

J. A. Adams, Register for Johnston county, sent in on Monday, his exhibit of taxes for the current year, showing:

State tax, general,	$3,518.57
" " special,	3,575.12
School tax.	5,321.31
County taxes,	9,371.71
Total taxes paid by the county,	$21,787.21

Messrs. Wynne & Co., have just received at the hands of Joel Fesler a fine car load of horses and mules from Kentucky. The horses are nice for topys and saddlers. The mules are well broke and of good size.

Adjourned Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina.

THIRD DAY.

Friday, Sept, 14, 1877.

The Convention assembled at 10:30 o'clock, a. m., Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D. L. L. D., presiding.

On motion the calling of the roll was dispensed with, and the journal of yesterday was read and approved.

The Rev. Mr. Murdoch rose to a question of personal privilege; and, at some length explained his reasons for advocating a division, disclaiming all personal feeling, and claiming to be instigated only by a zeal for the welfare of the church.

Rev. Mr. Bynum next took the floor upon a similar ground.

The Rev. Dr. Buxton as Chairman of the Committee appointed to consider the matter of a Federate Province in the event of a division of the Diocese, made a report and submitted certain resolutions on the subject for the consideration of the Convention.

Rev. Mr. Kernan moved that the consideration of the report of the committee and the accompanying resolutions be postponed until the establishment of a dividing line.

After some little discussion the motion was lost, and amendments offered by the Rev. Dr. Buell to the resolutions submitted by the committee were accepted.

The Bishop announced that the hour for the consideration of the Special Order, it being the question of the boundary line between the two Dioceses, had arrived.

Dr. DeRossett moved to postpone the consideration of the diving line and to dispose at once of the report of the committee on the subject of a Provincial or Federate Union.

The motion was adopted, but a subsequent motion by R. H. Smith, Esq., to take immediately into consideration the Special Order, prevailed, and the Chair announced that the matter of a dividing line was before the Body. At this point the Rt. Rev. Ass't Bishop asked the indulgence of the Convention and entertained the assembly with a brief address, which for its disinterestedness and its zeal for the weal of the church challenged and received the admiration of all within hearing.

In conclusion he disclaimed all personal feeling in this whole matter. He claimed to be animated solely by the desire to aid the church, and the cause of Christ; and asked that as there appeared to be such a wide-spread difference of opinion and feeling in regard to a division of the Diocese that the Convention indefinitely postpone the whole matter of division.

The Rev. Dr. Huske then offered the following resolution, which he advocated briefly, viz:

WHEREAS, There appears to be a want of such general consent in the minds of the members of this Convention as would render advisable the division of the Diocese; therefore,

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to proceed to the division of the Diocese at this time.

The resolution was adopted by a large vote.

The Rev. Dr. Murdoc read the following protest by the minority of the body and asked that it be spread on the minutes of the convention:

We the undersigned do solemnly protest against the action of this Convention in postponing the division of the Diocese. We regard this action as a breach of faith, and take this method of notifying the church that we are not responsible for this postponement.

Very respectfully,
F. J. MURDOCK, Rector of St. Luke's, Salisbury,
W. S. BYNUM, Officiating at St. Barnabas, Greensboro,
R. H. BATTLE, JR.
P. A. WILEY,
CHAS. J. CURTIS, Rector of St. Mathews, Hillsboro,
S. F. LORD.

After the reading of the protest the Bishop decided that the protest was not entitled to a place upon the journal of the Convention.

And upon an appeal taken by the gentleman who introduced the protest the decision of the Chair was sustained.

R. H. Battle, Esq., moved that the subject of a Provincial or Federate Synod be referred to the committee who made a report this a. m., with the request that they report at the next Annual Convention.

A motion to increase the number of committees from three to five prevailed, and the Bishop announced the additional committee.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop declared that the election of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of New York City, from this Diocese, was in order.

The Rev. Dr. George Patterson and P. A. Wiley, Esq., were appointed tellers to conduct the election, and the tellers reported the following gentlemen as trustees from this Diocese, viz: Clergy—the Rev. Drs. Wetmore, Buxton, and Buel, the Revs. E. M. Forbes, N. C. Hughes, and A. A. Benton; Laity—Messrs. A. J. DeRossett, K. P. Battle, Jas. G. Martin, and F. B. Hill.

Rev. Mr. Murdock moved to dissent to the proposed alteration in article 5 of the constitution, sent down from the house of Clerical and Lay Deputies of the General Convention, in reference to the erection of Missionary Jurisdictions within organized Dioceses.

After an animated discussion of the matter, which was participated in by Rev. Drs. Buel and Huske, Messrs. J. G. Martin and W. H. Battle and the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Diocese, the motion to dissent from the action of the General Convention prevailed.

The following resolution, introduced by C. B. Denson, Esq., was unanimously adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That the members of this Convention most cordially return their thanks to the members of the parishes of Christ Church and the Church of the Good Shepherd, and to the citizens of Raleigh who have so generously extended their hospitalities during the session of this body, and also the committee of arrangements for the admirable system adopted for the comfort and convenience of the several delegates.

R. H. Smith, Esq., called the attention of the Convention to an amendment to article eight of the constitution, sent down from the General Convention, viz: "That the General Convention may, by canon, arrange and set forth a shortened form of morning and evening prayer, to be compiled wholly from the Book of Common Prayer,"

With the motion that this Convention concur in said amendments.

The motion prevailed and concurrence was had.

The same gentleman asked the attention of the Convention to an amendment to article eight of the constitution in reference to the Lectionary, and moved that concurrence be had in the same.

Mr. Buel spoke in opposition to concurrence, but the motion of Mr. Smith prevailed.

The Committee to whom was referred the communication from the Trustees of the University of the South, reported through their Chairman, the Rev. Dr. Patterson.

And pending the consideration of this report, the Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Diocese at a few moments past 8 o'clock.

The report submitted by Dr. Patterson as Chairman of the Committee on the University of the South with the resolutions accompanying the report were adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Murdock, from the committee on unfinished business, called the attention of the Convention to certain matters unsettled at the last Convention in Charlotte, and on motion the consideration of such business was postponed until the next annual Convention.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, it was decided to hold the next Convention of this Diocese in St. James Church, Wilmington, on the second Wednesday in May next. The following resolution was introduced by the Rev. Mr. W. S. Bynum, and adopted, viz:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that it is inexpedient to make any change in the name of the church at this time, and that the Secretary be instructed to furnish the deputies to the General Convention with copies of this resolution.

A motion of Dr. Watson, authorizing the Secretary to procure a suitable room in which to file the books and papers of this Diocese, was carried.

On motion of the Hon. W. H. Battle it was resolved that after the usual religious exercises the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Gloria in Excelsis was then sung, the entire body standing.

And after prayer and the benediction by the Reverend Bishops of the Diocese,

The Convention adjourned sine die.

Grand Review of Volunteer and Cadet Companies, and Target Practice,

SUPERVISORS.

Gen. Johnstone Jones, Adjutant-General of North Carolina; Col. W. L. DeRossett, New Hanover; Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Wilson; Col. R. F. Armfield, Iredell.

To all Companies of the N. C. State Guard who shall receive invitations to participate:

The North Carolina Agricultural Society offers a handsome flag, to be shot for annually, as the champion flag of the State, for the Company which attains the best average of shots at the Fair, in accordance with the rules of target practice that will be found below.

The company which receives this flag is expected to return the same, under proper military escort, should it fail to attend the next Fair from any reason.

To the best individual shot will be awarded a fine Whitney Military Rifle, calibre 45, to remain the property of the successful shot, generously donated by the Whitney Arms Co., of New Haven, Conn.

To the best single shot, a handsome prize Plume.

RULES FOR TARGET PRACTICE, UNDER DIRECTION OF THE SUPERVISORS.

The following are the rules and regulations governing the target practice of the North Carolina State Guard at the North Carolina State Fair of 1877.

Target—Twenty-two inches in diameter, with stake sufficiently long to make top of target six feet from the ground.

Bull's Eye—Four inches in diameter.

Distance—Two hundred yards.

Arms—Military rifles, of patterns issued by the State of North Carolina.

Each company represented at the Fair by at least ten (10) men, exclusive of officers, will be represented in the target practice by a team of five (5) men, inclusive of officers. Each member of this team will be allowed three (3) shots.

The aggregate counts of each team will represent the score of the Company.

The counting will be as follows:

Miss—22 inches.

Bull's Eye—0.

Every shot in the target outside of the bull's eye will be counted by inches and the fractional parts thereof, measuring from the outside of the bull's eye to the nearest side of the hole made by the shot.

The shots will be fired without rest, in a standing position.

The company team that scores the best aggregate (that is, the fewest number of inches, &c.,) will receive the champion flag and hold the same, subject to competition.

The best individual shot—that is, the individual whose three shots aggregate the fewest number of inches—will receive the prize rifle, not subject to competition

The best single shot will receive the champion Plume, subject to competition.

BINGHAM CADETS.

The Cadets of the Bingham school, Maj. Robt. Bingham commanding, will visit the Fair throughout the week. On Thursday, Oct 18th they will exercise in the skirmish drill, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 1 P. M.

More Recruits for the Pen.

Deputy Sheriff Steel of Guilford county, delivered to the penitentiary authorities, Thursday three colored and one white convicts, sentenced for terms of one to three years, at the Fall term of Guilford Superior Court, all for larceny.

On yesterday Sheriff Manning of Chowan, deposited with the Auditor a receipt from the penitentiary authorities for the delivery at Henry's of Mollie Skinner, colored, sentenced for 2 years for larceny at the late term of Chowan Superior Court.

Also, on yesterday, Sam. H. Taylor Sheriff of Surry, delivered to the penitentiary, five convicts, four colored and one white, all convicted of larceny at the Fall term of Surry Superior Court and sentenced to terms of one to ten years.

That Stag Party.

The arrangements are all made for the "Stag Party" to start on their trip to Beaufort Monday morning, where they expect any amount of sport. Fare for the round trip $3.00; a few vacancies to be filled yet. A pleasant time may be anticipated by the excursionists, listening to the roar of the ocean and the music of the sand-fiddlers (if they make any), watching the flight of the seagulls, catch blue-fish and shooting deer and other wild game.

Camp Russell--Letter From the Secretary of War.

It is very much desired by the State authorities to have an encampment of the North Carolina State Guard in this city, at the time of the Fair in October. With this view, Governor Vance addressed a letter to the Secretary of War, some weeks ago, requesting possession of Camp Russell for the use of the troops, the barracks being vacant, with the exception of a handful of men.

Yesterday the Governor received the following reply:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, City,
September 12, 1877.

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th ult., on the subject of the property in Raleigh occupied by United States troops, stating that the barracks are now vacant, and reiterating the request that the barracks be turned over to you for State purposes, for which there is immediate need and referring to the letter of May 28th last to you from this Department, I would now respectfully state that the title of the United States to the property, derived from capture from hostile forces, is held to be valid on the basis of decisions in similar cases; assuming, therefore, that the United States owns the land and the buildings, the Executive has not the authority to give them up. Congress is regarded as the only tribunal to entertain such a request.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
H. F. CROSBY,
Chief Clerk for, and by direction of, the Secretary of War.

To the Governor of the State of North Carolina, Raleigh, N. C.

The rumor that Camp Russell had been obtained for the purpose indicated above, is without foundation in fact.

North Carolina and Mayor Latrobe.

One of the leading merchants of Raleigh received a letter from a prominent house in Baltimore, a day or two ago, in which allusion is made to the reputed remarks of Mayor Latrobe of that city, in regard to North Carolina. The writer of the letter had seen the published statement of the matter and had read what the NEWS said in regard to it. We make the following extract from the letter, by permission:

"The editor of the NEWS, in reply to 'An Indignant North Carolinian' expresses our views entirely. Latrobe does not speak for Baltimore; he speaks for himself alone. Moreover he emphatically denies that he ever said what your Immigrant Agent attributes to him."

Mayor's Court.

Francis Johns charged with larceny, case continued until to-day.

Charles Dunston, barber, keeping his shop open on Sunday in violation of the city ordinance on the subject, fined $25, and cost. Appeals to the Superior Court.

A stranger in the city, under the influence of whiskey, was fined $5.00 and cost, for disorderly conduct on the street.

RALEIGH, N. C. Sept. 14.

To the Editor of the News:

The Ryan family, who were burned out last night, are in very destitute circumstances, having lost everything. Any contributions of clothing for Mrs. Ryan and her daughter, of food, bedding, table and kitchen furniture, will be thankfully received. Articles can be left at the store of Edward Fasnach.

Vance's Latest.

Gov. Vance told one of the Episcopal clergyman yesterday that it was against the scriptures to divide the Diocese; "for, did not St. Paul say," said the Governor, "Let there be no division among you?"

Personal.

We were pleased to have calls yesterday from Hon. Josiah Turner, Gen. J. G. Martin and Maj. Robert Bingham.

Hints for Practical Use.

1st—In selecting a lamp preference should always be given the lamp having the shallowest bowl, as the oil will pass more readily to the burner through a short distance.

2nd—To secure the perfect use or consumption of all the oil passing through the wick, and at the same time to avoid smoke, a tall chimney is indispensable to insure a proper draft and flow of oxygen to the flame. If the chimney is too short or the draft holes at the bottom clogged, a portion of the oil will be lost passing off unconsumed.

3rd—A wick well adapted for feeding oil should pass freely through the tube, and must not be too closely woven.

4th—Use Pratt's Astral Oil. Warranted safe under all circumstances, is free from smell or smoke, and burns in any lamp.

Julius Lewis & Co., sole agents in North Carolina for Pratt's Astral Oil. *

Wool work complete for water tank, capacity 1000 gallons, can be bought cheap by applying early at the NEWS office. *

Come and See.

We have for sale five (5) good milch cows. Will sell them low. A. C. Sanders & Co. *

L. R. Wyatt.

FOR SALE OR RENT.

KITTRELL SPRINGS
For Sale.
By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Granville county, I shall on Thursday, the 27th day of September next, offer for sale at public auction, at Kittrell's Depot on the R. & G. Railroad, seven undivided twelfths of about 140 acres of land known as the Kittrell Springs property, and also the entire interest in about 53 acres adjoining the above, the whole being the original tract sold by George Kittrell, deceased, to Blacknall & Co., (with the exception of one fourth of an acre on which was located the Episcopal Church.)
The sale will be made subject to confirmation by the court.
And by virtue of powers vested in me by C. B. Riddick, I will, at the same time and place, and upon the same terms, offer for sale privately, the remaining five undivided twelfths of said 140 acres, so that the purchaser may be enabled to acquire title to the whole.
This well-known property, situated about half a mile from Kittrell Depot, is highly improved with a large and commodious main building and a number of smaller buildings conveniently arranged in the midst of handsome grounds, and admirably adapted to the purposes of a High School or College, or place of summer resort.
About 150 yards from the main building is the Celebrated Mineral Spring
so justly famous for the medicinal virtue of its waters. The sale will take place at about 12 o'clock, after the arrival of the morning train.
TERMS:—One-third purchase money cash, One-third in 12 months, and one-third in two years, and title retained until payment of the whole.

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY
FOR SALE.
As executor of the late Mrs. Isabella M. Bragg, I offer for sale privately the very valuable residence of the late Gov. Thos. Bragg, located on McDowell and Jones streets, fronting 210 feet on McDowell street and 200 feet on Jones street.
The residence is most substantially built of brick with tin roof. Portico in front and rear. Nine rooms in the house divided by wide passage (upper and lower floors) with closets, pantry, &c.
The outer buildings are: One spacious law office, brick kitchen and laundry (servants rooms above), one double tenement framed building, stable, carriage house etc. On the premises are gas, well water and a garden well stocked with fruit trees.
The property is in excellent order, delightfully situated, and of easy access to all public places in the city.
The lot could be subdivided to make a building lot on McDowell street and one on Jones street. For terms apply to

MISCELLANEOUS.
THE DUBOIS FLANGE RIB COTTON GIN.
The Flange prevents hulls, stems, sticks and hard substances from being cut, consequently making a better sample of rough picked cotton than any other gin. By the free discharge of the seed as soon as picked a white roll is kept up, and the quantity of cotton ginned in a given time is increased. I have a fifty and sixty saw in store at reduced prices.
